

In honor of National SCI Awareness month, Burke Rehabilitation Hospital Presents...

A GRANT WORKSHOP FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH SCI!

Monday, September 21st, 2015 from 5:15 – 7:00PM

Burke Rehabilitation Hospital

785 Mamaroneck Ave.

White Plains, NY 10605

Patient Dining Room, 1st Fl., Main Hospital (Bldg. #7)

Join the Adapted Sports Coordinator from Helen Hayes Hospital, Matthew Castelluccio, and Coordinator of Burke's Hand Cycle Program, Alexandra Oudheusden on Monday, September 21st, 2015 at 5:15pm to learn about the Challenged Athletes Foundation (CAF) Access for Athletes, Kelly Brush Foundation and Travis Roy Foundation's Grants. A light dinner will be served.

You may apply for one of the following areas:

- Coaching/training fees, like a gym membership and coaching fees
- Adaptive Sports competition expenses, like entry fees, flights and lodging for an event.
- Adaptive Equipment that is a necessity (Wheelchair, Bed, Ramp, Lift, etc.)
- A specific piece of Adaptive Sports Equipment (Monoski, Hand Cycle, FES Bike, etc.)

By attending this workshop you will receive an overview of the grants, learn the process for applying, and develop a timeline for meeting the deadline. Any professionals who work with physical disabilities and family members of individuals with physical disabilities are also encouraged to attend.

There are specific guidelines pertaining to applicant eligibility for each grant. For more information about the grants please visit:
